

Policy:

Saint Mary's University promotes a scent-free environment. The concern of Saint Mary's University for the health of its employees and students with the major areas for classroom, an office, or the corridor, the understanding and cooperation of everyone is necessary to move forward towards a scent-free campus environment.

Procedures:

Concerns regarding scent free environment shall be directed to the Director, Facilities Management.

Please visit