Article Introduction: One of earliest ASB papers dealing with the history of the association was written by Gabrielle Durepos and presented at the 2006 conference, hosted that year by Mount Allison University in Sackville, New Brunswick. Gabie, at this point, was in her second year as a PhD student on the Sobey School of Business, PhD program and was grappling with the potential theoretical intersections between postmodernist historiography and actor-network theory. At the conference Gabie was awarded the Best Student Paper and went on in 2009 to develop a thesis on ñANTi-Historyò as a fusion of historiography and actor-network. In the ASB paper she set out to understand the human (e.g., business educators) and materiel (e.g., the production of conference programs) factors that came together to influence the character and continuance of the Atlantic Schools of Business.
